Outdoor Odyssey is committed to providing outdoor education opportunities for all students. To achieve this goal we offer the following:

- Financial assistance for trips to other qualified students, based on availability of funds and financial need. To see if you qualify, please answer the questions below.
- Full scholarship opportunities to students who qualify for our Oliver Schaufelberger Memorial Scholarship, for which we require a short essay application and financial information. Scholarship application attached on the next page.

The amount of each award will depend on our budget, cost of the trip for which you are registered, and the number of qualified students that apply. All grant award decisions are made at the discretion of the Outdoor Odyssey Coordinators and are final. You may submit this application to the online Supplementary Form linked on our registration webpage. If selected for assistance, grants will be credited to your bursar bill after you participate on your trip. If you have any questions please email Odyssey at coe.odyssey@gmail.com.

Oliver Schaufelberger Memorial Scholarship

200 x 290

In honor of late Guide Oliver Schaufelberger, a member of the Cornell class of 2011, Outdoor Odyssey offers one to two free trip(s) every year to a student who otherwise would not be able to have an Odyssey experience. To qualify for the scholarship, trippers must demonstrate financial need and submit an essay to coe.odyssey@gmail.com responding to the following prompt. The scholarship application is due by July 15th, and the recipient will be notified soon after.

Essay:

Oliver Schaufelberger believed strongly in the importance of Outdoor Education and its positive effect on people and the environment. In a one-page, double-spaced essay please describe something you believe strongly in and what your plans are at Cornell and beyond to improve the world through this value.

Please list or describe any circumstances or details you wish Odyssey to consider on your behalf:
