

Sorority and Fraternity Leaders

During this time, more than ever, we are seeking ways to keep meaningful connection with each other. It is important for us to check in and engage with our brothers and sisters as we know camaraderie is such an important piece of our sororities and fraternities. OSFL has pulled together many great resources to give you ideas of what chapter operations -and brotherhood and sisterhood- can look like remotely.

- ✚ Cornell has created a website specifically around Virtual Engagement for students that includes a TON of resources!
- ✚ Suddenly Remote: 20 Virtual Event & Activity Ideas for Off-Campus Engagement
- ✚ The Hot List are opportunities organized by local communities for volunteering.
- ✚ Cultivate connection with Phired Up. A ton of Free Resources with focuses on Recruitment & Growth, Marketing, & Leadership.
- ✚ CAMPUSPEAK has some video resources on their Facebook page, specifically highlight the Ignite Fraternity Videos.

Check in with your (inter)national originations, too, as they are all creating fantastic resources as well. Below we've listed information umbrella organizations represented at Cornell have created.

- ✚ National Pan-Hellenic Council
- ✚ National Association of Latino Fraternal Organizations
- ✚ National Asian Pacific Islander Desi American Panhellenic Association
